

Indemnity for Driver Trainer Using Client's own Vehicle

When a professional driving instructor gives instruction, and supplies the vehicle for provision of instruction, the learner is indemnified from all costs. When a client chooses to use own vehicle, the driving instructor is not liable for any costs in the event of an Incident, Accident or Infringement.

Suncoast Driving School Instructor Kenneth Steyn
Accreditation Number: 083 999177

By completing this form, I authorize the above-mentioned driving instructor to use the stated vehicle for the purpose of providing paid driving instruction to the Learner listed on this document. This document applies to any and all driving lesson undertaken in this vehicle

- ✓ I warrant that I am authorized to allow the use of the vehicle as the owner of the vehicle
- ✓ I have made enquiries of my insurer and notified them of the use of the vehicle
- ✓ I can provide a copy of the insurance policy if requested to do so by the driving instructor
- ✓ I indemnify the driver trainer for any costs, damages or claims arising from the use of the vehicle whilst providing professional driving instruction for the above listed learner
- ✓ I indemnify the driver trainer from any future claims that may arise and agree to be solely liable for any costs or claims into the future
- ✓ All of the above terms apply irrespective of the actions of the instructor whilst providing driver education.

Date: _____

Learners Name: _____

Learners Permit No: _____ Expiry Date: _____

Vehicle Registration: _____

Registered Owners Name: _____

Registration, Insurance and CTP current: Yes / No

Vehicle condition roadworthy: Yes / No

Vehicle Owner Agree to above mentioned terms: Yes / No

Signature: _____

This Document represents a framework of understanding between the Driving Instructor and the Student. This Document is not designed to override or replace law, it is designed to ensure a clear guideline is both set and agreed upon.